In memory of my parents who died in concentration camp

"Auf Bertolt Brecht"

May I never forget
that their light was cut off by those who do not know the source of all light.

May I never forget... when I see wrong done by those who judge
and are not called upon to judge.

May I never forget
when I see someone hurt by those who cannot see, and by those who cannot hear.

May I never forget
that their light was cut off but still burns in me,
trying to understand,
trying to see. 1969
